Visit the famous Omaha Zoo and other local sites.

Wednesday afternoon is “free time,” when you will have the opportunity to tour Omaha.

The Old Market in downtown Omaha is a great place for shopping and offers a great selection of restaurants.

2010 Beef Producers Educational Tour

October 23-28, 2010

Touring Iowa and Nebraska Agriculture
Florida Farm Bureau and the University of Florida/IFAS are providing the personnel and information for this tour. During the tour, participants will be able to ask questions pertinent to cattle production.

This tour is designed to educate cattle producers about each segment of the beef chain from cow/calf producer to the large meat packer.

Our primary objective is to show how cattle producers can add value along the beef chain. On this trip you will take part in many interesting and educational activities.
